Annual international student tuition fees:

Our postgraduate tuition fees depend on the type of course, how long it lasts and whether it is delivered online or in-person. For 2025/26 entry, the standard international student fee for full-time in-person taught postgraduate courses lasting 45 weeks is £29,990. This is subject to change in future years. Check our website to find the fees for the course you're interested in.

Financial aid:

We offer a limited number of competitive need and merit-based scholarships for postgraduate study. To help fund your studies, UAL administers US Federal Loans through FAFSA as well as private loans through Sallie Mae.

Provincial governments in Canada provide loans for Canadian students and the 5 major Canadian banks offer international study loans.

You can find out more by using our Scholarship Search tool:

Student support in the US and Canada:

UAL's Country Managers provide advice and support to students throughout the application and admissions process. This includes guidance on course and college selection as well as support with application preparation and portfolio submission. UAL hosts online and in-person events for North American students.

For Canadian applicants, learn more at:

Our postgraduate courses:

Whatever your chosen discipline, studying with us at postgraduate level will allow you to grow creatively and professionally.

We offer a range of postgraduate study opportunities including MA, M ARCH, MSc, MBA, MPhil and MRes degree courses. For students with international undergraduate experiences, we also have several courses to prepare students for postgraduate study at UAL, including Graduate Diploma, Postgraduate Certificate or Postgraduate Diploma.

Postgraduate applicants must have an undergraduate degree in a related subject and/or Accreditation of Prior (Experiential) Learning (APEL). Make sure you check the course page on our website for specific requirements for your course.
